Ethnic Markets Tour

Put the world in your shopping bag as we explore the wonderful and varied food stores which serve our ethnically diverse population. Cleveland’s history as a melting pot for cultures becomes a shop-till-you-drop experience! Stops may include Italian, Middle Eastern, Hispanic/Caribbean, Asian, Greek, German and, of course, the marvelous West Side Market, one of the largest indoor/outdoor food and produce markets in the world featuring 185 purveyors, many with 4 generations of family ownership. If there is time there will also be a stop at 10,000 Villages Gift Shop or some unique shops in Tremont. Lunch will be at the historic Sokolowski’s University Inn. This tour requires considerable walking and getting on and off the trolley. The tour includes a shopping bag and a copy of the most recent edition of Cleveland Ethnic Eats by Laura Taxel, a complete guide to Cleveland’s ethnic markets and restaurants.

A cooler will be provided for any purchases made on our trip.

Please note: This tour requires considerable walking and many times getting on and off the trolley.
